

CHATEAU TREYTINS

MONTAGNE SAINT-ÉMILION - VINTAGE 2016

Léon Nony established the Château Treytins estate in the Lalande de Pomerol Appellation in the 1950's, but its vineyards were planted in the 19th century by the Count de Kermartin. After Léon Nony's death in 1959, his son, Michel, then his grandson, Jean-Marc, continued his work. In 1997, the Nony family acquired vineyards in the Montagne Saint-Emilion Appellation, which it expanded in 2007, Château Treytins Montagne Saint-Émilion was born.

SOIL TYPE : Slightly over 5 hectares on soils ranging from sandy-loam to gravel located partially on a hillside.

AVERAGE AGE OF VINES : Around 30 years old

PLANTING DENSITY : Around 5,500 vines/ha

VINEYARD MANAGEMENT :

Double Guyot pruning, bud removal, sustainable soil enrichment, leaf thinning, green harvesting if necessary, ploughing, managed grass cover, harvesting when the grapes reach perfect maturity.

ENVIRONMENT :

Vine treatments only if necessary (with preference given to more environmentally-friendly products and application methods), effluent treatment, the use of local suppliers when possible, and selective waste management.

VINIFICATION :

Plot selection, sorting of the harvested grapes, full destemming, fermentation in stainless steel temperature-controlled vats, control of the maceration process and vinification temperatures.

BLEND : 90% Merlot, 8% Cabernet Franc, 2% Cabernet Sauvignon.

YIELD : 57 hl/ha

AGEING : In concrete tanks, stainless steel vats.

DATES OF HARVEST : From October 6 to 24.

WEATHER CONDITIONS :

The water tables had been replenished after a rainy winter and spring. Flowering took place in good conditions. A superb dry, hot summer, followed by a summery start to the autumn with low rainfall, enabled the grapes to ripen well.

TASTING NOTES :

Almost black ruby hue, generous bouquet of sour cherry jam and spice. The palate shows lovely volume, with noticeable, yet well-coated tannins, and a long, elegant finish.
Best drinking time : 2019 - 2025

PRESS RELEASES (extract):

- . 90-91/100 JamesSuckling.com : «A solid core of ripe fruit, fresh and mineral highlights and a tannic and chewy finish. Barrel maturation will make this more refined. Interesting young wine.»- James Suckling, USA, April 2017.
- . GOLD Medal - Concours Général Agricole de Paris, France, February 2018.
- . 14,5 Le POINT : « Black fruit, smooth on the palate, very ripe black fruit, soft tannins in the first sequence, but a bit more punchy on the finish, straightforward.». Jacques Dupont, Le Point N° 2332, France.
